

L1 () - How do you think that an SBOM that includes information about the software and hardware components of such equipment could facilitate faster and more accurate approvals, if at all?

